WARM TIME IN MENDON OVER NAMING TICKET

North and South End of Town Pitted Against Each Other in Nominating Candidates

Mendon, Oct. 13.—A primary of the citizens was held in the old meeting house last night. The house was filled to its capacity, a great number standing up. It was probably the most exciting event that has been held in Mendon for some time. Some two weeks ago a few citizens from the south part of town called the people together in a primary and nominated a ticket for the coming election. It seems as though they had some difficulty in getting their ticket filled, so they decided to meet in the primary last night and there renominated. All the town was now stirred up to the conditions, there of course, being a division in the town on nominees. The division is known as the North and South.

The North were successful in getting in all their nominees, but one, that being John Gardner, a southerner, who was placed on the ticket.

The following ticket was named to be voted for at the coming election: Mayor, William Bartlett; councilman four year term, Fred Larsen; councilman for two year term, Robert Forster, John Wille and John Gardner; city recorder, Elmer Hancock; treasurer, Allen Wille; justice of peace, Joseph Baker.

After the ticket was named it was voted for unanimously by the assemblage.

HANDSOME GIFTS COME TO U. A. C. FROM STATE FAIR

The Utah Agricultural College was remembered in a substantial way by exhibitors at the state fair and as a result we are now boasting of some new live stock on the hill. Ex-Senator Sealy of Mount Pleasant, presented the college with a short horn steer, Edward Benion of the Roosevelt Livestock Company, of Cleveland, Idaho, also gave a short horn steer, and Harry Sumner, of the College View Farm of Bozeman, Montana, a Duroc Jersey boar. These gift animals are to be used as models in the livestock department of the college.

Prof. John T. Caine in his capacity as Utah director of livestock exhibits at the Panama fair will leave this week for San Francisco to attend the livestock show. The show for cattle will be held October 18 to November 1, of sheep and swine from November 3 to 15. This show would have probably been the greatest cattle exhibit ever held had it not been for the breaking out of the foot and mouth disease which excludes all cattle east of the Mississippi.

SOUTH CACHE HIGH SCHOOL ORGANIZES

Hyrum, Oct. 13.—The restless spirit of vacation seems now to have entirely passed. If the interest that the students are taking in their work is accepted as evidence. Never has the South Cache High had a stronger class of students than she has this year. All seem to have come for a purpose more important and valuable to them than the mere one of having a good time, and it is expected that South Cache will be heard from this year to the entire satisfaction of all her patrons.

The enrollment is now very near the hundred mark, and many of the older students have not yet registered due to outside work.

The third year class is already showing up well and this is particularly gratifying to the faculty as there is usually a large decrease at this period in high school.

Organization of the student body and election of class officers have held the interest of the students during the past week. The completion in the various positions has been very strong, the margin in favor of the successful candidate being very small in most cases.

With the excellent set of officers that have been chosen to lead the students, South Cache is sure of the most successful year in her history.

Class socials are already being discussed as these are a necessary adjunct to the social welfare of school.

whom she never has met. The necessity of Lord Reginald's marriage was brought about through a provision in the will of his wealthy American uncle that unless he married within a year from the date of the uncle's death he would lose the fortune. Furthermore, he must not marry an actress. It happened that he was, in fact, infatuated with Mme. Helen, an actress, so the marriage to Kitty is a legal subterfuge, it being agreed that within six months the couple would be divorced and Kitty would receive a handsome sum for her trouble. Not even lawyers can lead young hearts and the play concludes with a surprising series of situations in which the resourceful Kitty finds her way to ultimate happiness.

Miss Ward will have the support of a company that includes Miss Cleo Ridgley, Mrs. Lewis McCord, Richard Morris, Jack Dean and Tom Forman.

At the Lyric theatre on Friday (only) October 15, Pathe Weekly will also be shown in connection with The Marriage of Kitty.

NORTH CACHE HIGH SCHOOL IS ORGANIZED

Excellent Set of Officers Elected in All Departments. Freshies Rule the Roost

The hum of industry is clearly evident to anyone entering the North Cache High School. The school never has had a stronger and more enthusiastic class of students. Every one seems to have entered with a determination to make every minute count, and to make this the most successful year in the history of the school. A spirit of work, loyalty and boost seems to be the slogan of everyone who has entered thus far. The enrollment is continually growing and indications are that there will be an exceptionally large graduating class this year.

During the last week the spirit of organization seemed to be the chief topic and the school is to be congratulated upon the excellent set of officers elected in all departments. The successful candidates on whom will rest the responsibility of directing the various student activities, are as follows:

Student body officers—President, Russel Merrill; vice president, Everett Hancey; secretary and treasurer, Maggie Peterson; cheerleader, Cardon Merrill; chorister, Veda Thomson.

Senior class—President, Everett Hancey; vice president, Mary Toolson; secretary and treasurer, Pearl Olson.

Freshman class—President, Herbert Adamson; vice president, Laura Kent; secretary and treasurer, Gwen Merrill; athletic manager, Roswell Swinyard.

No sooner were the classes organized than a spirit of rivalry began to manifest itself. The freshmen putted up with pride and importance because of having arrived at that stage when they could enter high school, went so far as to challenge the sophomores for a flag rush. Realizing that their opponents were about two to one the sophomores took the resulting defeat quite gracefully and the freshmen in their joy planned a chicken supper to celebrate their victory.

Pride ever cometh before a fall, seniors, Juniors and sophomores entered into a conspiracy. Monday morning mysterious parcels were deposited in the principal's office; next the outside doors were closed and locked and the poor freshmen were fed milk from bottles much to the embarrassment of the freshmen and much to the delight of the applauding audience. David Merrill distinguishes.

To the Tax Payers and Voters of Logan City

After having been persuaded by a committee of Logan's business men to again allow my name to go before the public to be voted on for the office of Mayor-Commissioner, I feel that it would be only fair to the public, that they be acquainted with my attitude on some of the important matters pertaining to our local municipal government. Therefore, I beg to assure the good people of Logan, that I stand today where I have always stood: ready and willing to carry out their wishes in every important matter.

I am a firm believer in permanent public improvements in keeping with the growth of the city; also in the consistent enforcement of our laws, and especially, those laws pertaining to the liquor traffic, as the records for the past 21 months will testify.

If at any time there may be matters pertaining to public service that are not understood by the public, I always stand willing to explain and consult with any taxpayer, giving just the same consideration to one as another.

I am always ready to assist in the carrying out of any plan that will tend toward the betterment of local conditions in the raising of the moral and civic standard of the city, and in the making of a better place in which to live.

I am opposed to the advertising of our city as a center of crime and scandal, as I believe Logan to be one of the most desirable home towns in this intermountain region.

After this short explanation of my position I am willing to cheerfully abide by the decision of the people. If you want my services for two more years, I will gladly serve you to the best of my ability. On the other hand, if you prefer a change, there will be no ill will.

With feelings of thankfulness to the citizens of Logan for the confidence reposed in me during the past and also for the loyal support tendered me, I beg to remain, Yours truly,
P. A. THATCHER.

Public Statement

For some time past I have been urged by my friends and business associates to be a candidate to succeed myself as City Commissioner in the coming election.

I had not contemplated entering the field again but owing to the unfinished work of acquiring the waters of DeWitt Springs for Logan City supply which comes under the department of which I have had supervision, and at the solicitation of numerous citizens I have become a candidate.

I have been interested with my colleagues in the improvements which have been made during my term of office, however, I have become particularly acquainted with the urgent needs of the city for a new water supply and an adequate distribution system. It has been my pleasure this summer to get underway, with the help of my associates in office, the construction of the DeWitt Springs Extension. The pipe line of which will be completed this year.

If I am elected it shall be my purpose to continue the construction of the waterworks system until the distribution reservoir is built and until an adequate distribution system has been installed, and all the necessary water main extensions have been made so that the entire city will be supplied with plenty of good pure water.

I am for a conservative, persistent enforcement of all of the ordinances of the city including the prohibition ordinance, I am now and have always been for prohibition. The people know my attitude upon this question.

If I am elected I shall be for a square deal for all and special privileges to none, I shall make every effort within my power to give Logan a clean business like administration.

G. W. LINDQUIST,
Candidate for City Commissioner.
